[Default Arrangement] by Lancelot Schubert & Jeremiah Creiglow

V1, C, V2, V3, C, V4, V5, C, C, V6, C, C

V1

See the day or hour no one knows when our King will draw his broom to sweep away the pain of earth
but we know He will come soon.

CHORUS

When He comes, we will know and He'll come not in ways we assume,
but for now we hope for soon.

V2

Not a one has loved their life so much as to hide Christ's hope or boon.
They all wield their death as an armament
so the kingdom will come soon.

V3

They were asking God, "send your Spirit down"
Father shook the upper room.
Saw their neighbors healed, good news revealed
'cause they asked Him to come soon.

V4

God was in the grave while he reigned on high then released those saved for doom.
But disciples knew no Pentecost, didn't know Christ would rise soon.

V5

Jesus rode the virgin mount upon a red carpet: palms and tunics.
And the people asked their king to save,
so to conquer, He died soon.

V6

There had been no king for millennia
but the prophets sang their tune of an Infant God in the virgin womb, Mary begging, "King come soon."
